

Transforming Lives. Building Community Well-Being.

Clinical Dx and Tx Pathway for Conduct Disorder

Patient meets diagnostic criteria per DSM-5TR

Psychosocial Therapies for Conduct Disorder, Consider age of Member*

The Dina Dinosaur Treatment Program

Cognitive-Behavior Therapy

Mode Deactivation Therapy

Multisystemic Therapy**

Holistic/ Multifaceted

Enhance MH Services**

Pharmacological treatment of Conduct Disorder, Therapy treatment for Conduct Disorders

Treatment Summary: There are two commonly used ways to treat someone with conduct disorder. One way is the pharmacological treatment in which the person is given different is given a prescription based on the severity and/or type of behavior they are encountering. These drugs range from 5 categories being antipsychotics, mood stabilizers and antiepileptic drugs, antidepressants, stimulants, and adrenergic drugs.

*Adopted from Texas A&M University at Central Texas please refer to the following link.

<https://www.tamuct.edu/research/databases/disorders/conduct-disorder.html>

**Enhanced services can be considered if the services are congruent with CCP.