

Questions & Answers

1. We checked the Trillium website to get an understanding what the current benefits package is. With it being a State Funded service, we wanted to explore if there are service limitations that we have observed with other state funded services.

There are no service limitations for Transition Management Services, other than those included in the Clinical Coverage Policy for the service